OBITUARY

[The following obituary was published in The Pike County Courier, November 14, 1930.]

Mrs. George Elam Died Last Saturday. In Memoriam.

Mrs. Mattie Henry Dowd Elam.

Friends and relatives were inexpressibly shocked last Saturday morning, when the news was circulated that Mrs. George Elam had passed away at 12:30 A.M. For two weeks she had been confined to her bed, but her unfailing cheerfulness perhaps more than any other one thing had lulled any fears those ministering to her may have felt. With constant regard for others, she would make light of her sufferings. "Don't wear yourself out coming to see me. I'll be sure to let you know if I'm not getting along well" she admonished her devoted Mother, just two days before she died. In the same spirit when early in the week some one, remembering the son in College at Fayetteville, begged, "Let me write Lethel you are sick" she refused saying, "Why worry the poor boy? No, we'll wait til I get better." And so the Death Angel slipped into that unsuspecting home and claimed the brave spirit which had so staunchly guarded the comfort, the peace of mind of the loved ones there and wafted it to a better land.

At midnight, Mrs. Elam awoke suffering. Mr. Elam, alarmed went to a neighbor's to call her faithful physician, but before either could return or Dr. Alford could arrive the end had come. With only a kind neighbor and her youngest son Dowd present, Mrs. Elam had closed her eyes upon this life to open them in a better world.

Born Jan. 29, 1881, Mattie Henry Dowd Elam was 49 years 9 months and 10 days old. She was married to Mr. Geo. Elam, November 18, 1903. To them were born four sons, Bryan, Lethel, Hicks, and Dowd. These four fine boys and their sorrowing father survive her, as do her stricken mother, Mrs. J.G. Price, one brother, Mr. Louis Dowd of California, three half brothers, Mobie, John, and Bill Price and scores of friends and more distant relatives.

Mrs. Elam was a sunny, cheerful disposition, which impressed all her associates in her every day contacts. Her merry laugh was one of her most marked characteristics, carried her Christianity into every day living, every act showed a sweet charity toward all and malice toward none.

Having given her heart to God and united with the church at the tender age of eleven she proceeded to exemplify her religion in her daily life, with the result that all lives that she had touched were brightened, made better. One of her friends remarked to the writer of these lines, "I knew Mrs. Elam for some years and can say she had one of the most cheerful, pleasant dispositions I ever knew. I never saw her in the least impatient or cross, she was always sunny, sweet, happy."

Her funeral was one of the largest ever held in Murfreesboro the Christian church, where it was held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning could not seat all the friends who crowded in, sad faced and with tear dimmed eyes to listen to the beautiful tribute paid her by Rev. Jno. F. Reese of Nashville. Her bier was banked with flowers, mute testimony of the love in which she was held. A selected choir sang several appropriated songs, friends were given the last chance to look at the peaceful face within the flower embanked casket and the sad journey to the family burying ground was begun.

Mattie Dowd Elam, devoted daughter, faithful wife, self sacrificing mother, true friend, has passed from our midst, but her sweet example, her tender love and ministration will live in the hearts of those she left behind. To her sorrowing ones, we would beg - Grieve not as those who have no hope. Your loved on has but been called Home, there to await you. Fix your thoughts on the blessed promise that after this life is done and you join her at last you will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

I have Seaborn Lisbon Jones b. ca 1797 in SC. He married Catherine Long 1820 in probably Bedford Co TN; source is Joseph Long bible - father of Catherine Long. The first child was Tacey b. ca 1821. I have been trying to find the parents of Seaborn Lisbon Jones for 20 years. I have always been intrigued by the abundance of same given names in the Charles Jones line. Added to that is the same geography - SC, Bedford Co TN. Here are the children of Seaborn and Catherine:

Children of Seaborn Lisbon Jones (b.SC 1797) and Catherine Long (b.1803 VA or TN); married 1820 Bedford TN: Tacy - b. Abt. 1820 Bedford Co TN; married Shadrack J. Moore; Tacy lived in Polk Co AR and buried Paoli OK William L. - b. 1822 - TN Amos Dickens - b. 1827 TN - my gg-grandfather. Joseph F. - abt 1825 TN; Nancy - b. abt. 1830 TN; Wiley - b. abt. 1832 TN (birth date could be as much as 10 years earlier.) Rebecca - b. 1833 Talladega AL; Married John Wesley Goodwin, buried Polk Co AR Margaret - b. 1835 Talladega AL Seaborn Wesley - b. 1839 - Talladega AL Jasper Newton - b. abt. 1842 Talladega AL Rosanna C. - b. 1846 Talladega AL

I figure the father of Seaborn Lisbon Jones could have been a brother to the father of Charles Jones. Any ideas? I understand the book Corinth Revisited provided a lot of the data that Charles Jones researchers use. Is the author still around and is anyone working on expanding his family?

I would appreciate some discussion with a Charles Jones researcher who has access to written data and has worked on the line for a while.

Sterling T. Ashcraft was my grandfather's oldest sibling and search as I may; I cannot find any record of his having a daughter named Laura E. Ashcraft.

However, like I said he may have had this daughter. His son, Andrew Jackson Ashcraft did marry a Laura?

Any information would be greatly appreciated.

Greetings,

My husband is descended from the Conatser family. William P. Conatser-Benjamin Franklin Conatser line. We are stumped in finding information on an Asberry/As. B. Conatser. He and his wife, Hettie, are on the 1900 and the 1910 census records of Pike County. We also have two pictures of Asbery and Hettie. Does anyone know the parents of Asbery and Hettie Conatser?

Asbery Conatser was born in December 1859 and Hettie Conatser was born in February 1867.

Thank you kindly.

God bless America.

I have a question concerning a name on your database, Alton A. Wright. I believe he may be my grandfather and if so, your website will be a huge wealth of information. My mother knows very little about him except that he died when she was a year old (apparently in a hold up?). I would love to verify this. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Thank You,
